Meeting Planners,

Thank you for considering Tupelo as the site for your next meeting. Our city's tagline tells you to imagine what you can do here! This absolutely applies to our robust meetings market, as we love to entertain and host people from all over the globe. We know that you need a location that will attract attendees and provide a setting for innovative and inspiring conversations, all at an affordable price. In Tupelo, we can do that and more, with meeting spaces from small, intimate hotel meeting rooms to our newly expanded conference center to millions of square feet at the Tupelo Furniture Market. We also have quality accommodations, at various price points, to meet your attendees' needs and are adding to our hotel inventory annually.

We aim to make your experience in Tupelo a memorable one. From our off-site venues and Signature Experiences, to incredible customer service offerings for your meeting, we can help plan unique receptions and hands-on activities for groups of all sizes. Once your meeting breaks for the evening, Tupelo has over 200 restaurants and 18 live music venues to enjoy a night out in the city where anything is possible.

Tupelo's most famous son, Elvis Presley, walked this city with a dream of taking a sound to the world unlike anyone before. Let us help inspire your meeting attendees to do the same, by hosting your next meeting in Tupelo.

All the best,

Neal McCoy

Elvis Presley Birthplace and Museum

306 Elvis Presley Drive
Tupelo, MS 38804
662.841.1245
www.elvispresleybirthplace.com

An official Mississippi landmark, the Elvis Presley Birthplace is part of the 15-acre Elvis Presley Park, which offers facilities for picnics and community events. The attraction includes the birthplace, museum, chapel, story wall, "Fountain of Life," and a gift shop. Also featured on the grounds is a life-sized bronze statue titled "Elvis at 13," which portrays a young Elvis as remembered by hometown friends – wearing overalls and toting a guitar. The Assembly of God Church that Elvis attended as a child, a 126-seat theater, "Becoming" statue, an exhibit gallery, Reflections, and picnic pavilion are the newest additions to the grounds. Visitors also enjoy taking the Elvis' Tupelo Driving Tour around the city which points out 14 significant locations that were an important part of Elvis' childhood in Tupelo.

Natchez Trace Parkway Visitor Center

2680 Natchez Trace Parkway • Tupelo, MS 38804
662.680.4027 • www.scenictrace.com

The historic 444-mile highway linking Natchez with Nashville began as a trail traveled by Indians and wild animals about 8,000 years ago. Later it was used by Spanish explorers, British troops, and settlers of the southern frontier. Today it is one of our "All American Roads" and a national park. Headquartered in Tupelo, it offers a Visitors Center which features a number of interesting exhibits and displays.

Oren Dunn City Museum Tupelo Veterans Museum

Located at James L. Ballard Park • Tupelo, MS 38801
662.841.6438 • www.orendunnmuseum.org

A restored dogtrot cabin is one of the many historic buildings clustered on the grounds of the Oren Dunn City Museum. The late Oren Dunn, founder of the museum, was known to friends and loved ones as a history buff and storyteller. He set out to chronicle the region's history and the museum continues to preserve his mission today.

Tupelo Veterans Museum, housed inside the museum, displays a private collection compiled to chronicle America's involvement in war beginning with the Civil War.

Tupelo Buffalo Park & Zoo

2272 North Coley Road • Tupelo, MS 38801
Toll free: 1.866.272.4766 • www.tupelobuffalopark.com

The Tupelo Buffalo Park, one of the city's busiest attractions, has more than 150 buffalo roaming almost 200 acres. In addition to the buffalo, the park also has exotic animals, horse trail rides, petting zoo, reptile house, and a party pavilion, which is available for rental. Also featured is a live pony carousel, Chickasaw Indian Village, and the park's "Monster Bison Bus."

Vietnam Veterans Replica Wall Memorial

800 North Veterans Boulevard • Tupelo, MS 38801

A permanent 300' black granite replica of the wall in Washington, DC, inscribed with the names of 58,267 KIA's and MIA's of the Vietnam War. No admission charge to visit the park.
