

BREAKFAST WORTH GETTING UP FOR

While many restaurants in Tupelo are known for their burgers, pizza, and BBQ, few are known for their breakfast. For those of you who like to get an early start to your day, check out some of these local breakfast spots and be sure to tag us using #MyTupelo / #tupelofoodie.

Brick and Spoon • 1201 North Gloster Street • 662.346.4922

Enjoy their all-day breakfast or brunch menu that includes everything from traditional breakfast items to shrimp and grits and breakfast tacos. They also offer build-your-own Bloody Mary, Mimosa, and other unique cocktails.

Connie's Fried Chicken • 821 South Gloster Street • 662.346.4922

Connie's is known for their mouthwatering chicken 'n' biscuits smothered in white gravy. If chicken isn't your thing that early in the day, don't worry, they've got you covered. Connie's makes their legendary blueberry donuts fresh every morning.

Crave • 108 East Main Street • 662.260.5024

Known as Tupelo's dessert café, Crave is just as yummy in the morning. From scones and biscuits to muffins and quiche, Crave has it all.

D' Cracked Egg • 206 Troy Street • 662.346.2611

D' Cracked Egg offers an all-day breakfast menu that features everything from eggs benedict, omelets, waffles, and pancakes to biscuits, chocolate gravy, grits, and oatmeal.

Fairpark Grill • 343 East Main Street • 662.680.3201

Sometimes you just need to skip breakfast and go straight to brunch. Known for their crab cakes, Fairpark Grill has taken your favorite entree and turned it into a breakfast item with their version of eggs benedict. For those of age, don't forget to try out their Bloody Mary bar that includes everything but the kitchen sink. Brunch is available Saturday and Sunday.

Forklift • 1103 West Jackson Street • 662.510.7001 • www.forkliftrestaurant.com

Offers a Sunday brunch focused on Southern cuisine sourced from local ingredients, created in unique dishes in a modern, urban setting.

Jobs • 314 East Main Street • 662.362.6173

Located in Hotel Tupelo, this surf and turf restaurant offers daily breakfast with a brunch menu on Saturday and Sunday.

Just Love Coffee Café • 1600 North Gloster Street • 662.260.5094

A hand-roasted specialty coffee café with a full "waffled" and breakfast menu served all day.

BREAKFAST WORTH GETTING UP FOR

While many restaurants in Tupelo are known for their burgers, pizza, and BBQ, few are known for their breakfast. For those of you who like to get an early start to your day, check out some of these local breakfast spots and be sure to tag us using #MyTupelo / #tupelofoodie.

King Chicken Fillin' Station • 3897 McCullough Boulevard and 2447 South Eason Boulevard • 662.260.4417

Don't let the gas station fool you, they are known for serving some of Mississippi's best fried chicken with breakfast staples.

La Neta Food Trailer • Parking lot of 662 Wine and Liquor on North Gloster Street • 662.255.4427

For those who like breakfast anytime of the day, La Neta has avocado toast; breakfast burritos with bacon, eggs and cheese; and chilaquiles which are fried tortillas cut up and garnished with sour cream, queso fresco and raw onions.

Lost + Found Coffee • 910 Robert E. Lee Extended • 662.269.3675

Not only are they all about the coffee experience, but they also offer great breakfast items like garden toast, fresh baked quiche, and homemade bread and bagels.

Main Street Market and Deli • 1228 West Main Street • 662.432.4947

Hop in for breakfast at the deli and try some of their morning offerings, including a breakfast burrito, BLT, avocado toast, veggie omelet or bagels and cream cheese.

Papa V's • 438 East Main Street • 662.205.4060

Breakfast is the most important meal of the day, but if you don't have time for a traditional sit-down breakfast, this convenience store has a variety of hot breakfast items ready and waiting.

PoPsy • 206 North Spring Street • 662.269.2641

Can you say avocado toast? Known for creating menu items around organic and locally sourced ingredients, they also offer smoothies, smoothie bowls, fresh juices, and grab-and-go items.

Romie's Grocery • 804 West Jackson Street • 662.842.8986

This local restaurant serves up great Southern food and offers a brunch menu from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturdays. As they like to say, "put a little South in your mouth."

Strange Brew Coffeehouse • 202 North Gloster Street • 662.350.0215

A local and independent specialty café known for their creative brew, unique pastries, and a variety of house-made goods.

Facebook: MyTupelo | Instagram: @MyTupelo | TikTok: @MyTupelo