

OFF THE WALL

Looking for a way to learn more about Tupelo's colorful personality? Check out our impressive collection of larger-than-life murals that tell our story and celebrate our history. Snap a picture and tag us using #MyTupelo.

1950s Elvis • Reed's Department Store (corner of West Main and Front Streets) • 131 West Main Street

1970s Jumpsuit Elvis • Reed's Department Store Alleyway • 131 West Main Street

Book Stack Mural • 131 West Main Street

Buy Local Produce • 415 South Spring Street

Iconic Duo • 517 Linden Hill Street (Boys and Girls Club Building)

Chickasaw Heritage • 216 West Main Street (corner of West Main and Broadway Streets)

Circus Mural • Alleyway (South Broadway Street)

Clark Street Mural • Corner of Clark and Broadway Streets

Coca-Cola Wall Art Advertising • 130 West Main Street

Eat Like A King • 3897 McCullough Boulevard (Side of King Chicken Fillin' Station)

Gerbera Daisies • 101 Industrial Road (side of Talbot House Bakery & Café)

Gold Lane Elvis • 314 South Green Street (Fun World)

Greetings From Tupelo • 202 West Main Street

Historical Landmark • Romie's Grocery • 804 West Jackson Street

Home of the King • 108 South Broadway Street

Icehouse Elvis • The Gardner-Watson Icehouse/The Silver Moon Club • 213 Clark Street (corner of Clark and Spring Streets)

Jailhouse Rock Elvis • 124 West Main Street

Library Stack • 219 North Madison Street (Lee County Library)

Mississippi State Flag • Reed's Department Store (corner of West Main and Front Streets) • 131 West Main Street

Restored Coca-Cola Wall Art Advertising • 114 North Spring Street

Tupelo History • Tupelo Creative Commons (corner of Spring and Elliott Streets)

Unity & Love Mural • Alleyway between MLM Clothiers and Jason Warren Realty Group
108 South Spring Street

