

BREAKFAST WORTH GETTING UP FOR

While many restaurants in Tupelo are known for their burgers, pizza, and BBQ, few are known for their breakfast. For those of you who like to get an early start to your day, Tupelo, Mississippi, is positively the place for flavor-filled getaways. #MyTupelo | #tupelofoodie.

Brick & Spoon • 1201 North Gloster Street • 662.346.4922

Enjoy their breakfast or brunch menu that includes everything from traditional breakfast items to shrimp and grits and breakfast tacos. They also offer build-your-own Bloody Mary, Mimosa, and other unique cocktails.

Connie's Chicken • 821 South Gloster Street • 662.842.7260

Connie's is known for their mouthwatering chicken 'n' biscuits smothered in white gravy. If chicken isn't your thing that early in the day, don't worry, they've got you covered. Connie's makes their legendary blueberry donuts fresh every morning.

Crave • 108 East Main Street • 662.260.5024

Known as Tupelo's dessert café, Crave is just as yummy in the morning. From scones and biscuits to muffins and quiche, Crave has it all.

D' Cracked Egg • 206 Troy Street • 662.346.2611

D' Cracked Egg offers an all-day breakfast menu that features everything from eggs benedict, omelets, waffles, and pancakes to biscuits, chocolate gravy, grits, and oatmeal.

Jobos • 314 East Main Street • 662.362.6173

Located in Hotel Tupelo, this surf and turf restaurant offers daily breakfast with a brunch menu on Saturday and Sunday.

Just Love Coffee Café • 1600 North Gloster Street • 662.260.5094

You are going to "Just Love" this specialty coffee café that offers a full "waffled" and breakfast menu served all day.

King Chicken Fillin' Station • 3897 McCullough Boulevard • 662.260.4417

Don't let the gas station fool you, they are known for serving some of Mississippi's best fried chicken with breakfast staples.

King Chicken 2 • 2447 South Eason Boulevard • 662.350.3820

Let this be your one stop for some good cluckin' chicken ... fried chicken, hot chicken, chicken sandwiches, chicken plates, and chicken by the piece.

Lost + Found Coffee Company • 910 Robert E. Lee Extended • 662.269.3675

Not only are they all about the coffee experience, but they also offer great breakfast items like garden toast, and homemade bread and bagels.

Kreecher's Creation • 1931 McCullough Boulevard • 662.322.8714

This charming patisserie offers flaky croissants, hearty breakfast sandwiches, cookies, sourdough, and plenty of treats to make everyone smile.

Mae's To-Go Cup • 1699 Coley Road • 662.523.9919

This locally owned business offers freshly ground espresso, fresh-brewed coffee, cold brew, frappes, bagels, muffins, and pastries.

BREAKFAST WORTH GETTING UP FOR

While many restaurants in Tupelo are known for their burgers, pizza, and BBQ, few are known for their breakfast. For those of you who like to get an early start to your day, Tupelo, Mississippi, is positively the place for flavor-filled getaways. #MyTupelo | #tupelofoodie.

Papa V's • 438 East Main Street • 662.205.4060

Breakfast is the most important meal of the day, but if you don't have time for a traditional sit-down breakfast, this convenience store has a variety of hot breakfast items ready and waiting.

The PoPsy Bowl • 2990 B McCullough Boulevard • 662.269.2641

Did you say avocado toast? Known for creating menu items around organic and locally sourced ingredients, they also offer smoothies, smoothie bowls, fresh juices, and grab-and-go items.

Romie's Grocery • 804 West Jackson Street • 662.842.8986

This local restaurant serves up great Southern food and offers a brunch menu from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturdays. As they like to say, "put a little South in ya' mouth."

Scarlet's Donuts • 1714 North Gloster Street • 662.840.6699 and 5142 Cliff Gookin Boulevard • 662.620.7244

Visit www.scarletsdonuts.com for hours of operation at each location.

Locally owned and operated, you can choose from the classic, light and fluffy style, deliciously filled rounds, and old-fashioned lush cake style, or seasonal specialty flavors.

Strange Brew Coffeehouse • 220 North Gloster Street • 662.350.0215

This local and independent specialty café is known for their creative brew, unique pastries, and a variety of house-made goods.

The Grill at Fairpark • 343 East Main Street • 662.680.3201

Sometimes you just need to skip breakfast and go straight to brunch. Known for their crab cakes, The Grill at Fairpark has taken your favorite entree and turned it into a breakfast item with their version of eggs benedict. For those of age, don't forget to try out their Bloody Mary bar that includes everything but the kitchen sink. Brunch is available Saturday and Sunday.

The Handpie Guy • 1133 West Main Shopping Center Parking Lot • 662.422.3381

Located in the West Main Shopping Center parking lot, The Handpie Guy serves sweet and savory Handpies baked fresh daily.

The Talbot House Bakery & Café • 101 North Industrial Road • 662.260.4318

This local bakery is known for their delicious baked goods, pastries, and sweet treats, as well as coffee that is available all day.

